These Terms apply to the contract for the sale of Products between Seller and Buyer (the "Contract"). No course of dealing or usage of trade is applicable unless expressly incorporated in the Terms. Any clerical error may be corrected by Seller. Buyer's written acknowledgment, issuance of purchase order, acceptance of a quotation or the delivery of Products or payment for the Products, whichever occurs first, is acceptance of these Terms. Any proposal for different terms is expressly rejected by the Seller. All such proposals are considered a material alteration of the Terms, and the different terms will not become a part of the Contract between the parties. Seller's representatives and agents (other than directors) do not have authority to agree any terms or make any representation which is inconsistent with these Terms or, to enter into any contract except on the basis of them. Any oral order by Buyer must be confirmed by Buyer in writing within ten (10) days in order to constitute a valid order unless Seller otherwise accepts such oral order and fulfils it by total or partial performance.
2. Price/Payment. (a) The purchase price for the Products will be the price for the Products set out in the quotation for the supply of Products provided that Seller may, by giving notice to Buyer at any time up to two (2) Business Days (being a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) before delivery, increase the price of the Products to reflect any increase in the cost of the Products that is due to (i) any factor beyond Seller's control (including foreign exchange fluctuations, increases in taxes and duties and increases in labour, materials and other manufacturing costs); (ii) any request by Buyer to change the delivery date(s), quantities or types of Products ordered, or the specification; or (iii) any delay caused by any instructions of Buyer or failure of Buyer to give Seller adequate and accurate information or instructions or any deferral or suspension of an order by Buyer. (b) Prices contained in Seller issued quotations or proposals expire thirty (30) days from the date of quotation and are subject to change or termination by notice during this period. All quotations are provisional and are subject to confirmation upon receipt of order. (c) Buyer shall pay for all taxes, excises or other charges (except taxes on or measured by net income) that Seller may be required to pay to any government (foreign, national, state or local) with respect to the production, sale or transportation of any Products, except where the law expressly provides otherwise. Where Buyer purchases Products from Rieke Packaging Systems Limited ("Rieke") and requests that euro pallets are used, Buyer shall pay for such pallets. For the avoidance of doubt, the price of the Products is exclusive of amounts in respect of value added tax (VAT) and Buyer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from Seller, pay to Seller such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Products. (d) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Seller, Buyer will pay all freight, storage, handling, packaging, insurance or similar charges. (e) Seller may require Buyer to pay a deposit or provide an irrevocable letter of credit in favour of Seller in an amount determined by Seller and from a bank approved by Seller payable on presentation of commercial invoice or to make payment for Products in advance. (f) Seller shall invoice Buyer on or at any time after completion of delivery except where Rieke is the Seller in which case, Rieke shall invoice Buyer on the date of despatch of the Products. Unless otherwise noted on the face of the invoice, invoices are payable in EUR Euros within thirty (30) days from date of invoice, subject to credit approval. All amounts due to Seller may be accelerated immediately upon Buyer's failure to pay invoices as required and shipments of further Products may be suspended or cancelled. Time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract. Buyer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Seller from any and all legal fees and costs which may be incurred by Seller to collect any overdue balances. If any sum payable is not paid on or before the due date for payment, Buyer shall be charged interest on that sum at three (3) times the French legal interest rate from the due date until the date of payment, plus an additional lump sum penalty of EUR 40 (forty Euros) for recollection costs (g) All amounts due under the Contract shall be paid in full without any deduction or withholding (other than any deduction or withholding of tax as required by law). Neither party shall be entitled to assert any credit, set-off or counterclaim against the other in relation to the payment of the whole or part of any such amount. (h) Seller may change payment terms by giving notice to Buyer at any time, in its sole discretion.

3. Capacity. Seller may provide Buyer with estimates or forecasts of its capacity for the manufacture or delivery of Products. Buyer acknowledges that any estimates or forecasts are provided for estimation of output only and, like any other forward looking projections, are based on a number of economic and business factors, variables and assumptions, some or all of which may change over time. Seller makes no representation, warranty, guaranty or commitment, express or implied, regarding any estimates or forecasts provided to Buyer, including the accuracy or completeness of the estimates or forecasts.
4. Allocation and Quantity Variation. In no event shall Seller be required to sell a greater number of Products than it shall have available or allocated for such purposes. If Seller is unable to supply the total demands for any of the Products, Seller shall have the right to allocate its available supply among its customers in such manner as Seller shall deem to be fair and equitable and Buyer will not be entitled to reject the Products if Seller delivers up to and including five percent (5%) less than the quantity of Products ordered but a pro rata adjustment shall be made to the order invoice on receipt of notice from Buyer that the wrong amount of Products was delivered. In no event shall Seller be obligated to purchase Products from others in order to enable it to deliver Products to Buyer. Seller may supply up to ten percent (10%) more or less than the exact quantity of Products ordered and Buyer shall accept and pay the quoted price for the actual quantity delivered by Seller.
5. Technical Information. (a) All specifications, drawings, schematics, tests, designs, inventions, engineering notices, financial information (including pricing information), technical data, samples, prototypes, models and/or equipment (“Technical Information”) supplied by Seller, directly or indirectly, to Buyer will remain Seller’s property. (b) Buyer shall keep all copies of the Technical Information in safe custody until returned to Seller and shall not reproduce, use or disclose any Technical Information other than in accordance with Seller’s written instructions or as reasonably necessary to allow the Buyer to use or re-sell the Products in Buyer’s ordinary course of business. (c) Buyer will keep confidential all Technical Information and any other confidential information (written or oral) concerning Seller’s business or affairs (together “Confidential Information”). Buyer shall restrict disclosure of Confidential Information to such of its employees having a need to know and bound by obligations of confidentiality corresponding to those which bind the Buyer in this Section 5. In the event any Confidential Information is disclosed by the Buyer in breach of this Section 5, Buyer shall indemnify and hold Seller harmless for the damages suffered due to such disclosure.

6. Intellectual Property Rights. (a) Buyer acknowledges that Seller owns all intellectual and industrial property rights of any kind whatsoever including patents, supplementary protection certificates, rights in know-how (being formulae, methods, plans, inventions, discoveries, improvements, processes, performance methodologies, techniques, specifications, technical information, tests, results, reports, component lists, manuals and instructions), registered trade marks, registered designs, models, unregistered design rights, unregistered trade marks, rights to prevent passing off or unfair competition and copyright (whether in drawings, plans, specifications, designs and computer software or otherwise), database rights, topography rights, any rights in any invention, discovery or process, and applications for and rights to apply for any of the foregoing, in each case in the United Kingdom and all other countries in the world and together with all renewals, extensions, continuations, divisions, reissues, re-examinations and substitutions (“Intellectual Property Rights”) relating, directly or indirectly, to the Products. (b) Seller shall use all reasonable endeavours to meet any performance dates for the Services specified in the relevant Buyer’s Order but any such dates shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence for the performance of the Services. (c) Seller shall have the right to make any changes to the Services which are necessary to comply with any applicable law or safety regulation, or which do not materially affect the nature or quality of the Services, and Seller shall notify Buyer in any such event. (d) Seller warrants to Buyer that the Services will be provided using reasonable care and skill. (e) Buyer shall co-operate with Seller in all matters relating to the Services and shall provide Seller, its employees, agents, consultants and sub-contractors with access to Buyer's premises, office accommodation and other facilities as reasonably required by Seller to provide the Services. (g) If Seller's performance of any of its obligations in respect of the Services is prevented or delayed by any act or omission by Buyer or failure by Buyer to perform any relevant obligation (the "Buyer Default") Seller shall without limiting its other rights and remedies be entitled to suspend performance of the Services until Buyer remedies the Buyer Default and to rely on the Buyer Default to release it from the performance of any of its obligations. Seller shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by Buyer arising directly or indirectly from Seller's failure or delay in performing any of its obligations as a consequence of the Buyer Default and Buyer shall reimburse Seller on written demand for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by Seller arising directly or indirectly from the Buyer Default.

Where it is necessary for Buyer to supply any containers, packaging, labels, identifications or particulars of the Products to enable Seller to effect delivery of the Products, such containers, packaging, labels, identifications or particulars must be furnished or acts performed in a reasonable time to enable Seller to deliver the Products within the time for delivery b) Without prejudice to the above, Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the Products comply with the rules and standards governing the labelling and marking of products in force in the country of import (c) All export and import duties, fees, permits, licenses, etc. for Products will be the responsibility of Buyer. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment will not entitle Buyer to cancel any other instalment. Any Products considered "back-ordered" will be considered an instalment. (f) Seller will attempt to fill and deliver all orders to Buyer at the requested time of delivery, subject to Seller's present engineering and manufacturing capacity and scheduling. Any dates quoted for delivery are approximate only, and the time of delivery is not of the essence. The time stated for despatch dates is from receipt of complete instructions sent by email, fax or registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt, approval of drawings and/or samples etc (each where relevant) from Buyer and not from the date of receipt of an order from Buyer. Seller shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Products that is caused by a Force Majeure event or Buyer's failure to provide Seller with any instructions that are relevant to the supply or delivery of the Products. (g) If Seller fails to deliver the Products, its liability shall be limited to the costs and expenses incurred by Buyer in obtaining replacement goods of similar description and quality in the cheapest market available, less the price of the Products. (b) All drawings, specifications, technical documentation, samples and prototypes are approved and/or accepted by Buyer if Buyer does not provide Seller a written objection and/or rejection within ten (10) days of receipt or other reasonable time established in writing by Seller. Failure to provide written objection and/or rejection will constitute an irrevocable acceptance by Buyer of such drawings, specifications, technical documentation, samples and prototypes and irrevocable confirmation that the Products manufactured in conformity with such drawings, specifications, technical documentation, samples and prototypes (or differing only within normal industrial limits) will comply with the specification for the Products agreed in writing between the parties and will meet the requirements of quality specified in Section 13 except in respect of defects which are not capable of being revealed on reasonable inspection by Buyer. No modification of the Terms, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, will be binding upon Seller unless approved in writing by one of Seller's authorized representatives. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

Where it is specifically requested by Buyer and agreed by Seller, Seller will undertake to use tools manufactured on behalf of Buyer for the execution only of orders placed by Buyer. In this event, Seller will not be liable for damages caused by defects in tools or moulds supplied and/or approved by Buyer for the performance of the agreement.
